In the United States Court of Federal Claims OFFICE OF SPECIAL MASTERS

No. 05-1126V

Filed: August 1, 2007 Not to be published.¹

John	Clinton.	by his	mother.	JULIE	GLASER,

Petitioner,

Vaccine Act Attorneys' Fees

v.

SECRETARY OF HEALTH AND HUMAN SERVICES

Respondent.

DECISION (ATTORNEYS' FEES)

On July 30, 2007, the petitioner's counsel, Michael G. McLaren, submitted an application for attorneys' fees, seeking an award of fees and costs incurred in this case filed under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program on behalf of John Clinton. The application seeks a total of $ 21,706.63. On August 1, 2007, respondent's counsel informed my law clerk that respondent has no objection to such amount.

The proposed amount seems reasonable and appropriate. Accordingly, I hereby award the following attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-15(b) and (e)(1):

A lump sum of $ 21,706.63, in the form of a check payable jointly to petitioner and petitioner's counsel, Michael G. McLaren, on account of petitioner's attorneys' fees and costs.

In the absence of a timely-filed motion for review of this Decision (see Appendix B, Rules of the United States Court of Federal Claims), the clerk shall enter judgment in accordance herewith.

George L. Hastings, Jr. Special Master

¹Because this document contains an explanation for my action in this case, I intend to post this order on the United States Court of Federal Claims' website, in accordance with the E-Government Act of 2002, Pub. L. No. 107-347, 116 Stat. 2899, 2913 (Dec. 17, 2002). Therefore, as provided by Vaccine Rule 18(b), each party has 14 days within which to request redaction "of any information furnished by that party (1) that is trade secret or commercial or financial information and is privileged or confidential, or (2) that are medical files and similar files the disclosure of which would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of privacy." Vaccine Rule 18(b). Otherwise, this entire document will be available to the public. Id.
